WAIVER OF LIABILITY

Applicant understands that the location of the proposed agricultural building upon the property is exempt from the requirements of building codes, regulations and permits from Camas County per Idaho Code Section 39-4116(5) with the exception of placement of the building regarding setbacks from property lines and utility easements. As such, Camas County makes no representation as to the quality of construction or the viability of the building for its purported purpose or for conditions existing in Camas County. Additionally, Camas County is relying on the accuracy of the information provided by the applicant in determining the setbacks from property lines and utility easements and makes no representations as to their accuracy as it pertains to the location of utility easements and property lines.

Applicant, on behalf of the applicant, its officers, agents, heirs, assigns and successors in interest to the property or building in question, hereby acknowledges the above limitations and hereby releases Camas County, its officers and agents, from any liability for any damage to the property or building of applicant relating to the placement of an agricultural building which is the subject of applicant's permit.
